

RESOURCES.

LEARNING OUTCOMES.

- o Paper and pencils

- o Understand how to create a STORYBOARD
- o WRITE a scene for the drama.

ACTIVITIES.

Storyboard (Group Activity) - 20-30 minutes

- o Recap STORYLINE – finish if not complete.
- o Make a detailed STORYBOARD – with clear outline of main action in each scene, and specifically detailing all the sounds in the scene. (SEE STORYBOARD WORKSHEET)

Script Writing - 30 minutes

Demonstrate how to set out a script (see over).

In pairs / groups

- o Allocate scenes for children to WRITE.

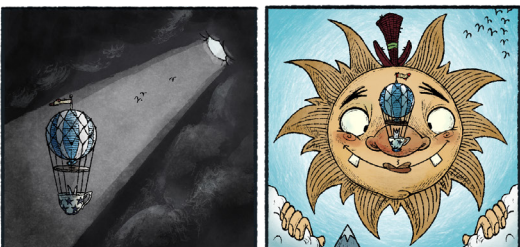

SOCKS THE DOC SETS OUT TO FIND THE SUN

AN ANGRY STORM CLOUD THREATENS THE QUEST

SOCKS WEATHERS THE STORM AND FINDS THE SUN

---

SCRIPT FORMAT.

---

Scene number

Place

Time (if needed)

PUPPY:           Text... (Action within a speech) Text...

SFX                Description of any environmental or non-verbal sounds.

General action or movement direction, eg. Character runs to the door.

---

---

SCRIPT SAMPLE.

---

(from A CHRISTMAS TAIL by Year 5 at St Luke's, Endon)

(SFX = Sound Effects)

Scene 1

A forest.

Afternoon, late December.

SFX                Wind in leafless trees. Creaking of branches. Winter birds, such as the robin.

The patter of four feet, sounds of snuffling and sniffing in the undergrowth.

PUPPY:           (Sniffs) What's that? (Sniffs and snuffles - hopefully) No, not food. (Moves on... sniffs) What's that? (Big sniff) A dog came by here. A stranger - a female dog, not one of my pack. Oh, where are they? Where can they be? (Whimpers) It will be getting dark soon. I'll never find them.

SFX                A howl in the distance – a wild dog.

PUPPY:           What was that? Was that them? (A little puppy howl) Help! I'm hungry. So hungry! Please find me! Please...

SFX                A school bell in the distance.

---

Scene 2

A classroom, in a high school

SFX                    School bell

TEACHER 1:        Right everyone, that's it. Off you go – have a good Christmas.

SFX                    Kids packing up, chattering.

TEACHER 1:        Lily – don't forget, you've got detention.

LILY:                    Aw Miss (Sir) – I thought you'd let me off.

TEACHER 1:        You were talking in my lesson.

LILY:                    You were teaching in my conversation!

TEACHER 1:        Detention, Lily.

LILY:                    It's so boring.

TEACHER 1:        Lily...

LILY:                    It's Christmas.

TEACHER 1:        Now!

Lily angrily storms out of the classroom.

